SUMMARY

Synopsis of Bill

House Government and Urban Affairs Committee Substitute for House Joint Resolutions 6 and 19 proposes to amend the Constitution of New Mexico to allow runoff elections in municipalities with a population over twenty thousand. The resolution also states that the Legislature may provide for runoff elections in other municipalities by law.

FISCAL IMPLICATIONS

There is no appropriation associated with this joint resolution. The Secretary of State indicates a cost of $30.0 for the printing and advertising costs of constitutional amendments in the general election. The General Appropriations Act of 2002 contains $500.0 for costs associated with the constitutional amendment process.
